FAITH COMMUNITIES AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY IN THE CITY OF NEW YORK

Descriptions are excerpted from Lion Link or student group websites. For full descriptions, please see lionlink.columbia.edu or student group websites.

ADVENTIST CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP (ACF)
ACF is a group of Seventh-Day Adventist students and faculty who meet for a weekly Bible study to eat and talk in fellowship together.
Contact: acfatcolumbia@gmail.com

AHIMSĀ (AHIMSA)
The literal meaning of “Ahimsa” is nonviolence. It respects the belief that all beings are connected as one and was regarded as the highest ideal to strive for by Mahatma Gandhi in his “Satyagraha” (Truth) movement for India’s freedom. Ahimsa is Columbia’s one and only student organization devoted to promoting this Jain and Gandhian edict.
Contact: ahimsa@columbia.edu

APOSTOLOS CAMPUS MINISTRY (ACM)
Contact: acmcolumbia@gmail.com

BAHĀ’Ī CLUB (BAHAI)
The Bahā’ī Club is a student group whose membership is not confined to members of the Bahā’ī Faith. It organizes regular, diverse activities open to all. Its main purposes are to bring people together in a spirit of friendship; to promote independent and unprejudiced thinking; to foster unity among different racial, ethnic, and religious groups on campus; and to collaborate with organizations having similar aims.
Contact: columbiabahaiclub@gmail.com

BHAKTI CLUB (BHAKTI)
We are a group who focus on vegetarianism and spiritual growth through Hindu teachings. All are welcome to attend, whether or not they identify as vegetarian or spiritual. The only prerequisite is an open and curious mind.
Contact: bhakti@columbia.edu

CANTERBURY CLUB EPISCOPALIAN SOCIETY
Part of the Episcopal Campus Ministry, the Canterbury Club is the student organization at Columbia University and Barnard College, representing Episcopal and Anglican life on campus. We support students by offering chapel services as well as fellowship, educational, and spiritual opportunities. We hope you will join us every Sunday in St. Paul’s Chapel at 6:15 p.m. for our weekly service, during which we celebrate the Eucharist (Communion). We also meet every Wednesday at noon in Earl Hall 101 for catered lunch and conversation, preceded by a very short noonday prayer.

CHABAD STUDENT NETWORK (CHABAD)
The Chabad Student Network brings unique Jewish programming to the entire Columbia Community and serves as a representative of Columbia University undergraduates at many local and international events. The Chabad Student Network is looking to bring many more events to campus that foster communal and Jewish life. The heart of Chabad at Columbia University resides in a brownstone at 624 West 113th Street. Chabad is based on the ideology that tikkun adam (bettering yourself) will promote tikkun olam (bettering the world), and vice versa. Rabbi Yonah and Rebbetzin Keren Blum and their children host a free Shabbat dinner every Friday night during the academic year. Exact times can be found at chabadstudentcenter.org. Contact: chabad@columbia.edu

CHRISTIANS ON CAMPUS
We are a student group who meets to share the gospel of Jesus Christ and encourage spiritual growth through reading the Bible, the Word of God.
Contact: see Lion Link for contact information

COLUMBIA-BARNARD HILLEL (HILLEL)
Hillel involves students in Jewish life on campus through diverse programs and a variety of student groups within Hillel representing the variety of Jewish identities and expressions. Students have opportunities to get involved Jewishly through culture and the performing arts, social action, Israel programming, religious life communities, educational activities, and social events. Our staff includes professionals from numerous Jewish backgrounds and areas of expertise, and we are available to meet with you. Our home is the Kraft Center for Jewish Student Life, 606 West 115th Street. We welcome you all!
Contact: info@hillel.columbia.edu

COLUMBIA CATHOLIC UNDERGRADUATES (CCU)
Columbia Catholic Undergraduates is a community of Columbians who believe the truths proclaimed by Jesus Christ through His Catholic Church, and who strive to integrate this Catholic faith into our daily lives. Contact: catholics@columbia.edu

COLUMBIA FAITH AND ACTION (CFA)
Columbia Faith and Action is a nondenominational student Christian organization focused on leadership development. We offer Bible courses, personal discipleship, prayer groups, retreats, and a rich variety of ministry and social activities. We voluntarily choose to affiliate ourselves with the regional organization, Christian Union, which partners with Christian organizations on numerous Ivy League campuses.
Contact: see Lion Link for contact information

COLUMBIA HUMANIST SOCIETY (CHS)
Columbia Humanist Society is the premiere organization on campus promoting Humanism as a core founding principle. CHS combines weekly philosophical discussion on pertinent issues of the day with public service and political activism. Contact: columbiahumanistsociety@googlegroups.com

CU SEWA
CU Sewa, formerly known as the Sikh Student Association, is a group that seeks to embody the importance of the Sikh tradition Sewa (Selfless Service) in the community, as well as open discussion about other practices and beliefs of Sikhism.

COLUMBIA STUDENTS FOR CHRIST (CSFC)
Columbia Students For Christ is a Christian fellowship affiliated with CRU. We seek to challenge the Columbia campus with the Gospel of Jesus, to share the love of Jesus, to train by the example of Jesus and to make disciples of Jesus.
Contact: ccc@columbia.edu

COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY ART OF LIVING (CAL)
The purpose of the Columbia Art of Living is to create a stress-free, energetic and joyful campus community, ready to face the challenges of academic life and beyond. The organization will conduct regular yoga/meditation sessions for students/faculty/staff of Columbia University and affiliated institutions. The aim is to bring more focus, greater clarity of mind and overall well-being. Contact: artofliving@columbia.edu

COMPASS CHRISTIAN KOINONIA (CCK)
CCK, a Christian fellowship group at Columbia University, is a community of CC, SEAS, and Barnard students with a common desire to learn about Jesus and share our faith with others. Through weekly Bible studies, small groups, fellowship events, and plenty of good food, we explore the life of Jesus, tackle tough questions, and strive to build deeper relationships with Christ and each other. Dinner and Bible study on Fridays, 7:30 p.m., in Lerner Hall (please check our FB page www.facebook.com/cck.cu for the specific room each week).

FALUN DAFU
A place for practitioners of Falun Dafa to gather and study the main texts of the faith, as well as to introduce Falun Dafa to the Columbia community. The club also works to spread awareness about the ongoing persecution of Falun Dafa in China.
Contact: falundafa@columbia.edu

HINDU STUDENTS ORGANIZATION (HSO)
The Hindu Students Organization provides a forum for students to practice and explore Hinduism in an atmosphere marked by tolerance, open-mindedness, and a willingness to engage in dialogue. Although Hinduism and its customs take many forms, the HSO focuses on weekly devotional services, pujas on auspicious occasions, seva or service, and a general celebration of Hindu traditions and festivals. In order to reflect the diversity of the Hindu community, the HSO maintains a nonsectarian position with regard to the beliefs, practices, and politics it espouses.

Contact: hso@columbia.edu

INTERFAITH COLLECTIVE
Recognizing the importance of both diversity and unity, and insisting that only by embracing the former can we truly claim the latter, the Interfaith Collective intends to engender a new vibrancy and honesty within the University surrounding matters of faith. It hopes to create a community—within itself and within Columbia—where all are welcome and none feel alone. Interfaith Collective holds periodic discussions on various ideas/themes, engaging students in conversation from multiple perspectives. Most importantly though, these conversations are spaces where individuals are free to share personal experiences and thoughts, free of any expectations.
Contact: multifaith@columbia.edu

INTERVARSITY CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP
InterVarsity is an interdenominational Christian ministry that is open to the entire campus community to explore the life and teachings of Jesus. A core belief is that each person is treasured and valuable to God, and each initiative of the group stems from this belief.

JUBILATION! (JUBILATION!)
This is Columbia’s first and only Christian a cappella group—a performance group focused on singing God’s praises. The theme verse is Psalm 98:4, which reads, “Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth, burst into jubilant song with music.”
Contact: contact@jube.org

KOREA CAMPUS CRUSADE FOR CHRIST (KCCC)
Building spiritual movements on campus so that everyone will know someone who truly follows Jesus!

KOREAN CHRISTIAN STUDENTS ASSOCIATION (KCSA)
Student association for Korean students and alumni at Columbia University, hosting weekly worship services and other extracurricular activities such as choir, intercessory prayer, and study breaks.

LATTER-DAY SAINT STUDENT ASSOCIATION (LDSSA)
We represent a diverse body of Columbia undergraduates who enjoy social, spiritual, and educational activities that serve to strengthen faith in Jesus Christ, and support the standards and teachings of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Though many of our members subscribe to the Mormon faith, not all do, nor is membership in the Latter-day Saint Church required for club membership or participation. Integral to the beliefs of every member of the LDSSA, however, is a support for the LDS Church and its programs. As a club we plan and participate in numerous social, religious, and educational activities throughout the course of the school year. Contact: ldssa@columbia.edu

MARANATHA WORSHIP AND PRAYER MEETING (MARANATHA)
“Maranatha” is Aramaic for “O Lord, come!” We are a nondenominational, inter-fellowship Christian worship and prayer group at Columbia University. Come worship, receive prayer, or simply soak in the presence of God! We welcome people of all genders, ethnicities, ages, and ministries. Worship and prayer meetings take place every Tuesday, from 6 to 9 p.m. in Weber Lounge. Contact: cuatmaranatha@gmail.com

MUSLIM STUDENTS ASSOCIATION (MSA)
The MSA Executive Board aims to foster Muslim life on campus and strengthen the bonds between our allies, associates, and members within the Columbia community. We are united in the goal of promoting MSA’s presence on campus for both current and future constituents. The MSA aims to organize a variety of events that will seek to promote and address issues that are relevant to our community. We seek to educate our community about the various aspects of Islam, hoping to increase awareness about contemporary issues that are relevant to society today. As a result, we hope to work closely with our community members in order to better understand and acknowledge their needs. The Board is elected to serve the interests of the general body and welcomes any and all feedback on how to enhance its work and be of greater service to the community. Contact: msa@columbia.edu

ORTHODOX CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP (OCF)
The Orthodox Christian Fellowship is dedicated to providing fellowship for Orthodox students on campus. We meet every Thursday in the Choir Room of St. Paul’s Chapel at 6:30 p.m. Our weekly meetings include fellowships with guest speakers and Bible Studies. Contact: ocf@columbia.edu

REMNANT CHRISTIAN FELLOWSHIP
We are a Christian Fellowship that serves the Columbia and Barnard communities as an on-campus extension of Remnant Westside Church, which exists to raise a new generation, liberated and empowered by the gospel. We have small groups and events weekly.

UNIVERSITY BIBLE FELLOWSHIP (CUBF)
Columbia University Bible Fellowship is a nondenominational, evangelistic campus organization and Christian club focused on raising disciples of Jesus at Columbia University. Contact: ubf@columbia.edu

VERITAS FORUM
Many of our nation’s colleges and universities have included the Latin word veritas in their mottos, signifying the pursuit of truth, a pursuit that was the foundation for much of the educational system for generations. Our name, The Veritas Forum, evokes our desire to explore the ideal that veritas represents. The Veritas Forum engages students and faculty in discussions about life’s hardest questions and the relevance of Jesus Christ to all of life.
