KRAFT GLOBAL FELLOWS PROGRAM

The Kraft Global Fellows Program is an initiative of the Kraft Family Fund for Intercultural and Interfaith Awareness and the Office of the University Chaplain. Applications are now being accepted for the May 2016 Kraft Global Fellows research trip to Mumbai, India and the Columbia Global Center: Mumbai. The group research project will focus on the religions, cultures and communities of Mumbai. The project, led by Jewelnel Davis, University Chaplain and Associate Provost, is designed with and coordinated by Dr. Ravina Aggarwal, Director of the CGC: Mumbai and mentors from her team at the CGC.

Funding for the program is from the Kraft Family Fund for Interfaith and Intercultural Awareness; covered expenses include roundtrip airfare from NYC-JFK to Mumbai and return to NYC-JFK and lodging. Students must have a current passport that will not expire before December 1, 2016. Dates of the trip are May 22, 2016 - June 4, 2016.

Program Mission:
• Provide an opportunity for Columbia University students to add a global perspective to their Columbia University academic experience by utilizing the resources of the Columbia Global Centers. Moreover, for this year’s program, we encourage the Fellows to explore relevant topics such as multi-faith interconnectivity and issues of diversity in Mumbai.
• Enrich the Columbia University community by creating opportunities for students to share their research, their experience, and the resources of the Columbia Global Centers once they return. Must be returning to campus for the Fall and Spring semester of academic year 2016-2017.
• Promote interfaith and cross-cultural experience.
